6. [Redacted] Mrs. Virginia Laird, in the office of Senator Stuart Symington, called and said the Senator is writing letters to Messrs. [Redacted] and Ted Shackley (presumably thank you letters following the Senator's trip) and asked for the addresses of these men. I advised Mrs. Laird that [Redacted] would be in touch with her tomorrow with this information.

7. [Redacted] Met with Miss Dorothy Fosdick in response to her request, and reviewed with her a letter to Senator Henry Jackson (D., Wash.) from a [Redacted] Washington, questioning United States involvement in Bolivian activities at this time. I advised Miss Fosdick that the reported statements of General Porter before the Association of the U.S. Army this week were accurate, and suggested that they might provide appropriate background for the Senator's use in response to [Redacted]
